ACCOMODATION AND SPECIAL NEEDS :

PSAC-QC is committed to ensuring that the conference is accessible to all Racially Visible Members. They are invited to provide details about their disability and the needs that need to be addressed in order to fully facilitate their participation. Please indicate any special needs and if necessary, we will contact you if clarification is required.

We invite participants to opt for co-chambering, as this decision will allow us to invite more women to the Conference given our limited budget. This gesture can really make a difference.
